An Account of a ſort of Sugar made of the Juice of the Maple, in Canada.

THE Savages of Canada, in the time that the Sap riſes, in the Maple, make an Inciſion in the Tree, by which it runs out; and after they have evaporated 8 pounds of the liquor, there remains one pound as Sweet, and as much Sugar, as that which is got out of the Canes; Part of the ſame Sugar, is ſent to be refined at Roven.

The Savages have practiced this Art, longer then any now living among them, can remember.

There is made with this Sugar, a very good Syrup of Maiden Hair, and other Capillary Plants, which is uſed in France.
